

Third Brigade of Jackson Division
second corp Army of Northern Va.

Volunteered July 1862 at Richmondville Louisa Co. Va.
Company D - 23rd Va. Regiment -
1st Command. Brig. Gen. Taliferro
2nd " " " " J. H. Stewart
3rd " " " " Wm. T. Lee

(Alvin
March 4/1863)

Solomon Banks	(Louisa, Va.)
Wm. Langford	(Campbell, Va.)
Steven Brew	(Louisa, Va.)

(Command)

Some battles engaged in.
Battle Sharpsburg, Md. ^{in night} (crowded then)
" " Fredericksburg Va. ^{Dec 14/1862} (on leg)
Spottsylvania Va.
Mine Run, Orange Co, Va.
From Plank Road Orange Co, Va
to Coal Harbor near Richmond Va.

second battle of Manassas - second

Ben by at Winchester
Stomach spent ball
I think wound in

Winchester, Va.

Bedon Brook, Va.

Shancellaville, Va.

From Petersburg to Appomattox
where surrendered

Brave acts -

At Gettysburg Lutenient Jennings went over the breast works first. T. B. Waldrop went over second

Went back on fettle under heavy fire & brought a comrade with broken leg off all alone.

Wm Langford & he is still alive
March 4, 1913

Transcript of Notes taken of Thomas Garland Waldrop on March 4, 1913 by Virginia Archer Waldrop Gaskill, daughter.

Thomas Garland Waldrop Dec 7, 1834 - Jun 10, 1913
Postmaster of Waldrop, VA Oct 5, 1896 - Jun 10, 1913
Virginia Archer Waldrop Gaskill
Postmaster of Waldrop, VA Jun 28, 1913 - March 31, 1942

Third Brigade of Jackson Division
Second Corps Army of Northern Va.

Volunteered July 1862 at Mechanicsville Louisa Co. Va.
Company D 23rd Va. regiment
First Commander Brig. Gen. Talifiero
Second " " " G.H. Stewart
Third " " " Wm. Terry

(alive March 4, 1913) Solomon Marks (Louisa, Va.)
Wm. Langford (Campbell, Va.) {Comrades}
Steven Crew (Louisa, Va.)

Some battles engaged in

Battles Sharpsburg, Md. (wounded then) in right arm
" Fredricksburg Va. Dec 14, 1862 In leg
" Spottsylvania, Va.
" Mine Run, Orange Co, Va.
From Plank Road Orange Co. Va
to Coal Harbor near Richmond Va.

Second battle of Manassas – wound..

Winchester, Va.
Cedar Creek, Va.
Chancellorsville, Va.
From Petersburg to Appomatox
where surrendered

Gen? by at Winchester
{ stomach spent ball }
Flesh wound in

Brave Acts -

At Gettysburg Lutennient Jennings went over the breastwork first. T.G. Waldrop went over second Went back in battle under heavy fire & brough a comrade with broken leg off all alone.
Wm. Langford & he is still alive
March 4, 1913